These materials were produced by Educational Testing Service® (ETS®), which develops and administers the examinations of the Advanced Placement Program for the College Board. The College Board and Educational Testing Service (ETS) are dedicated to the principle of equal opportunity, and their programs, services, and employment policies are guided by that principle.

The College Board is a national nonprofit membership association dedicated to preparing, inspiring, and connecting students to college and opportunity. Founded in 1900, the association is composed of more than 4,200 schools, colleges, universities, and other educational organizations. Each year, the College Board serves over three million students and their parents, 22,000 high schools, and 3,500 colleges, through major programs and services in college admission, guidance, assessment, financial aid, enrollment, and teaching and learning. Among its best-known programs are the SAT®, the PSAT/NMSQT®, and the Advanced Placement Program® (AP®). The College Board is committed to the principles of equity and excellence, and that commitment is embodied in all of its programs, services, activities, and concerns.

LL 11 - Ovid

When the boy began to rejoice in the bold flight and he deserted his leader and he made his journey higher, drawn to a point of the sky.
The nearness of the rays of the sun soften the fragrant waxes, the bonds of the feathers; the waxes had melted; that one has bare arms, and lacking orage he does not catch any breezes.

When the boy dared to rejoice in flying and deserted the leader and was desiring to go on a higher journey had been drawn to the sky. The rapidly nearing sun softened the smelly wax; chains of the feathers. The wax began to melt; that he beat ~~with~~ bare arms, and lacking oar power (wingage) he did not hit any breezes.
