The College Board is a not-for-profit membership association whose mission is to connect students to college success and opportunity. Founded in 1900, the association is composed of more than 4,500 schools, colleges, universities, and other educational organizations. Each year, the College Board serves over three million students and their parents, 23,000 high schools, and 3,500 colleges through major programs and services in college admissions, guidance, assessment, financial aid, enrollment, and teaching and learning. Among its best-known programs are the SAT[®], the PSAT/NMSQT[®], and the Advanced Placement Program[®] (AP[®]). The College Board is committed to the principles of excellence and equity, and that commitment is embodied in all of its programs, services, activities, and concerns.

It is believable that even you have felt Cupid's arrows. Carry my standards in your military duty. If she asks how I am, you will say that I live in the hope of the night. Carry the ~~tablets~~ with these things ^(the best) ~~remaining~~ written by my flattering hand. While I speak, the hour flees: return the tablets well from my empty (mistress).

It is believable that you, too, have felt the bow of Cupid:
 protect the standard of your own campaign in me.
 If she seeks, how I am doing, you will say that I live
 by the hope of night;
 The wax~~es~~, written upon with a loving hand,
 bears the rest.
 While I speak, time is fleeing; render well the tablets to your mistress, unoccupied.
